

Professional Licensure or Certification Disclosure

Insufficient to Meet Licensure or Certification Requirements:

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) with Custom concentration offered by Samford University, if successfully completed, has been identified as insufficient to meet licensure and certification requirements for applying to take the Bar examination in any state. Further, the L.L.M. program is not accredited by the American Bar Association.

Samford Cannot Determine Sufficiency for Licensure or Certification:

Samford University cannot determine if successful completion of the Masters of Laws (L.L.M.) with Custom concentration is sufficient to meet certification examination requirements for certifying bodies, applicable to all states<sup>1</sup>:

---

<sup>1</sup> This does not mean the educational program will not ultimately be accredited or approved by a certifying entity for eligibility to take certification examinations, or that certification could not result from attending this program (both applicable to all states).

Professional Licensure or Certification Disclosure

Insufficient to Meet Licensure or Certification Requirements:

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Financial Services Regulatory Compliance offered by Samford University, if successfully completed, has been identified as insufficient to meet licensure and certification requirements for applying to take the Bar examination in any state. Further, the LL.M. program is not accredited by the American Bar Association.

Samford Cannot Determine Sufficiency for Licensure or Certification:

Samford University cannot determine if successful completion of the Masters of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Financial Services Regulatory Compliance is sufficient to meet certification examination requirements for the following certifying bodies, applicable to all states<sup>1</sup>:

Certifying Body	Certification Examination
Association of Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialists	Certified Anti-Money Laundering Specialist: http://www.acams.org/aml-certifications/
Association of Certified Financial Crime Specialists	Certified Financial Crime Specialist: https://www.acfcs.org/page/certification
American Bankers Association	Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager: https://www.aba.com/Training/Certifications/Pages/CRCM.aspx
Compliance Certification Board	Compliance and Ethics Professional: http://www.compliancecertification.org/CCEP/CertifiedComplianceEthicsProfessional.aspx
International Association of Risk and Compliance Professionals	Certified Risk and Compliance Management Professional: http://www.risk-compliance-association.com/Distance_Learning_and_Certification.htm

<sup>1</sup> This does not mean the educational program will not ultimately be accredited or approved by the certifying entity for eligibility to take certification examinations, or that certification could not result from attending this program (both applicable to all states).

Professional Licensure or Certification Disclosure

Insufficient to Meet Licensure or Certification Requirements:

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Higher Education Law and Compliance offered by Samford University, if successfully completed, has been identified as insufficient to meet licensure and certification requirements for applying to take the Bar examination in any state. Further, the LL.M. program is not accredited by the American Bar Association.

Samford Cannot Determine Sufficiency for Licensure or Certification:

Samford University cannot determine if successful completion of the Masters of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Higher Education Law and Compliance is sufficient to meet certification examination requirements for the following certifying bodies, applicable to all states<sup>1</sup>:

Certifying Body	Certification Examination
Compliance Certification Board (CCB)	Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional: http://www.compliancecertification.org/CCEP/CertifiedComplianceEthicsProfessional.aspx
Association of Title IX Administrators	Multiple Certifications: https://atixa.org/events/training-and-certification/
National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators	Multiple Credentials: http://www.nasfaa.org/Earn_Professional_Credentials

---

<sup>1</sup> This does not mean the educational program will not ultimately be accredited or approved by the certifying entity for eligibility to take certification examinations, or that certification could not result from attending this program (both applicable to all states).

Professional Licensure or Certification Disclosure

Sufficient to Meet Licensure or Certification Requirements:

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Health Law and Compliance offered by Samford University, if successfully completed, is accredited by the Compliance Certification Board (CCB). Further, this degree, if successfully completed has been identified as sufficient to meet certification examination prerequisite requirements for the following CCB certification examinations in all states:

Certifying Body	Certification Examination
CCB	Certified Healthcare Compliance: https://www.corporatecompliance.org/certifications/become-certified
CCB	Certified Healthcare Research Compliance: https://www.corporatecompliance.org/certifications/become-certified
CCB	Certified Healthcare Privacy Compliance: https://www.corporatecompliance.org/certifications/become-certified
CCB	Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional: https://www.corporatecompliance.org/certifications/become-certified

Insufficient to Meet Licensure or Certification Requirements:

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Health Law and Compliance offered by Samford University, if successfully completed, has been identified as insufficient to meet licensure and certification requirements for applying to take the Bar examination in any state. Further, the LL.M. program is not accredited by the American Bar Association.

Samford Cannot Determine Sufficiency for Licensure or Certification:

Samford University cannot determine if successful completion of the Masters of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Health Law and Compliance is sufficient to meet certification examination requirements for the following certifying bodies, applicable to all states<sup>1</sup>:

Certifying Body	Certification Examination
American Academy of Professional Coders (AAPC)	Certified Professional Compliance Officer: https://www.aapc.com/certification/cpco.aspx#tab-3
National Alliance of Medical Auditing Specialists	Certified E&M Auditor Credential: http://namas.co/em-auditor-credential-cema/

---

<sup>1</sup> This does not mean the educational program will not ultimately be accredited or approved by the certifying entity for eligibility to take certification examinations, or that certification could not result from attending this program (both applicable to all states).

Professional Licensure or Certification Disclosure

Insufficient to Meet Licensure or Certification Requirements:

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Legal Operations offered by Samford University, if successfully completed, has been identified as insufficient to meet licensure and certification requirements for applying to take the Bar examination in any state. Further, the LL.M. program is not accredited by the American Bar Association.

Samford Cannot Determine Sufficiency for Licensure or Certification:

Samford University cannot determine if successful completion of the Masters of Laws (LL.M.) with concentration in Legal Operations is sufficient to meet certification examination requirements for the following certifying bodies, applicable to all states<sup>1</sup>:

Certifying Body	Certification Examination
Organization of Legal Professionals	Certified e-Discovery Professional: https://theolp.wildapricot.org/
Association of Legal Administrators	Certified Legal Manager: http://www.alanet.org/clm/
Project Manager Institute	Project Management Professional: http://www.pmi.org/certifications/types/project-management-pmp

---

<sup>1</sup> This does not mean the educational program will not ultimately be accredited or approved by the certifying entity for eligibility to take certification examinations, or that certification could not result from attending this program (both applicable to all states).